Describe the primary activity of the organization. (A copy of the material submitted with the application for federal or state tax exemption will normally provide this information.) If the organization is based outside California, comment fully on the extent of activities in California and how the California activities relate to total activities. In addition, list all funds, property, and other assets held or expected to be held in California. Indicate whether you are monitored in your home state, and if so, by whom. Attach additional sheets if necessary.

The primary activity of The Center for Medical Progress is to monitor and report on medical ethics and advances. The Center will receive monetary donations from the public to support its work.

The organization will be required to file financial reports annually. All organizations must file the Annual Registration/Renewal Fee Report (RRF-1) within four months and fifteen days after the end of the organization's accounting period. Organizations with $25,000 or more in either gross receipts or total assets are also required to file either the IRS Form 990, 990-EZ, or 990-PF. Forms can be found on the Charitable Trusts' website at <http://ag.ca.gov/charities/>.

If assets (funds, property, etc.) have been received, enter the date first received:

Bylaws of
The Center for Medical Progress
A California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation

ARTICLE 1: NAME

Section 1.1 Corporate Name. The name of this corporation is The Center for Medical Progress (the "Corporation").

ARTICLE 2: PURPOSES

Section 2.1 General Purpose. The Corporation is a nonprofit public benefit corporation and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized under the Nonprofit Corporation Law of California ("California Nonprofit Corporation Law") for public and charitable purposes.

Section 2.2 Specific Purpose. The specific purpose of the corporation shall include without limitation, to monitor and report on medical ethics and advances.

ARTICLE 3: LIMITATIONS

Section 3.1 Political Activities. The Corporation is nonprofit and nonpartisan and is organized and operated exclusively for the purposes set forth in Article 2 hereof within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)(3).

Section 3.2 Prohibited Activities. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and this corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements) on behalf of any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE 4: DEDICATION OF ASSETS

Section 4.1 Property Dedicated to Nonprofit Purposes. The property of the Corporation is irrevocably dedicated to the purposes in Article 2 hereof and no part of the net income or assets of the Corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, officer or member thereof or to the benefit of any private person, except that the Corporation is authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article 2 hereof.

Section 4.2 Distribution of Assets Upon Dissolution. Upon the dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of the Corporation, shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational and/or religious purposes and which has established its tax-exempt status under Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)(3).

ARTICLE 5: MEMBERSHIPS

Section 5.1 Members. The Incorporators of the Corporation shall be the sole members within the meaning of section 5056 of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law.

Section 5.2 Non-Voting Members. The Board may adopt policies and procedures for the admission of associate members or other designated members who shall have no voting rights in the Corporation. Such associate or other members are not “members” of the Corporation as defined in section 5056 of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law.

ARTICLE 6: DIRECTORS

Section 6.1 Number and Qualifications.

6.1.1 Number. The initial number of directors of the Corporation (“Directors”) shall be three (3). From time to time, the Board may, by resolution, increase or decrease the number of directors by increments of two (2), such that there shall always be an odd number of directors. Under no circumstances shall the number of directors ever fall below three (3).

6.1.2 Qualifications. The Directors shall be elected by the members.

Section 6.2 Terms; Election of Successors. Directors shall be elected at each annual meeting of the Board for one (1) year terms. Each Director, including a Director elected to fill a vacancy, shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which he or she was appointed and until the election and qualification of a successor, or until that Director’s earlier resignation or removal in accordance with these Bylaws and California Nonprofit Corporation Law. By resolution, the Board may arrange for terms to be staggered.

Section 6.3 Vacancies.

6.3.1 Events Causing Vacancy. A vacancy or vacancies on the Board shall be deemed to exist on the occurrence of the following: (i) the death, resignation, or removal of any Director; (ii) whenever the number of authorized Directors is increased; or (iii) the failure of the Board, at any meeting at which any Director or Directors are to be elected, to elect the full authorized number of Directors.

6.3.2 Removal. The Board may by resolution declare vacant the office of a Director who has been declared of unsound mind by an order of court, or convicted of a felony, or found by final order or judgment of any court to have breached a duty under California Nonprofit Corporation Law. No Director may be removed without cause.

6.3.3 No Removal on Reduction of Number of Directors. No reduction of the authorized number of Directors shall have the effect of removing any Director before that Director's term of office expires unless the reduction also provides for the removal of that specified Director in accordance with these Bylaws and California Nonprofit Corporation Law.

6.3.4 Resignations. Except as provided in this Section 6.3.4, any Director may resign by giving written notice to the Chairperson, the President, the Secretary, or the Board. Such a written resignation will be effective on the later of (i) the date it is delivered or (ii) the time specified in the written notice that the resignation is to become effective. No Director may resign if the Corporation would then be left without a duly elected Director or Directors in charge of its affairs, except upon notice to the California Attorney General (the "Attorney General").

6.3.5 Pro-Tem Election to Fill Vacancies. If there is a vacancy on the Board, including a vacancy created by the removal of a Director, the Board may fill such vacancy by electing an additional director pro tempore as soon as practicable after the vacancy occurs, Section 6.1.2 notwithstanding. If the number of Directors then in office is less than a quorum, additional directors may be elected to fill such vacancies by (i) the unanimous written consent of the Directors then in office, (ii) the affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors in office at a meeting held according to notice or waivers complying with section 5211 of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law, or (iii) a sole remaining Director.

Section 6.4 Regular Meeting. Each year, the Board shall hold at least one meeting, at a time and place fixed by the Board, for the purposes of election of Directors according to Section 6.1.2, election of Officers according to Section 7.2, review and approval of the corporate budget and transaction of other business. This meeting is sometimes referred to in these Bylaws as the "annual meeting." Other regular meetings of the Board may be held at such time and place as the Board may fix from time to time by resolution.

Section 6.5 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board for any purpose may be called at any time by the Chairperson, or the President, or the Vice President (if any), or the Secretary, or any two Directors.

Section 6.6 Quorum and Action of the Board.

6.6.1 Quorum. A majority of Directors then in office (but no fewer than two Directors or one-fifth of the authorized number in Section 7.1.1, whichever is greater) shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except to adjourn as provided in Section 6.7.

6.6.2 Minimum Vote Requirements for Valid Board Action. Every act taken or decision made by a vote of the majority of the Directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present is the act of the Board, unless a greater number is expressly required by California Nonprofit Corporation Law, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business, notwithstanding the withdrawal of Directors from the meeting, if any action taken is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for that meeting.

Section 6.7 Adjournment. A majority of the Directors present, whether or not constituting a quorum, may adjourn any meeting to another time and place.

Section 6.8 Fees and Compensation of Directors. The Corporation shall not pay any compensation to Directors for services rendered to the Corporation as Directors, except that Directors may be reimbursed for expenses incurred in the performance of their duties to the Corporation, in reasonable amounts as approved by the Board.

Also, Directors may not be compensated for rendering services to the Corporation in a capacity other than as Directors, unless such compensation is reasonable and further provided that not more than 49% of the persons serving as Directors may be "interested persons" which, for purposes of this Section 6.8 only, means:

- (a) any person currently being compensated by the Corporation for services rendered to it within the previous 12 months, whether as a full or part-time Officer or other employee, independent contractor, or otherwise, excluding any reasonable compensation paid to a Director as Director; or
- (b) any brother, sister, ancestor, descendant, spouse, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, mother-in-law, or father-in-law of any such person.

Section 6.9 Non-Liability of Directors. The Directors shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or other obligations of the Corporation.

ARTICLE 7: OFFICERS

Section 7.1 Officers. The officers of the Corporation ("Officers"), in accord with and for the purposes in California Nonprofit Corporation Law Section 5213, shall be a President ("Chief Executive Officer"), a Secretary, and a Chief Financial Officer.

Section 7.2 Election of Officers. The Officers shall be elected by the members at the annual meeting of the Corporation for a term of one (1) year, and each shall serve at the discretion of the Board until his or her successor shall be elected, or his or her earlier resignation or removal. Officers do not have term limits.

Section 7.3 Removal of Officers. Subject to the rights, if any, of an Officer under any contract of employment, any Officer may be removed, with or without cause, (i) by the Board, at any regular or special meeting of the Board, or at the annual meeting of the Corporation, or (ii) by an Officer on whom such power of removal may be conferred by the Board.

Section 7.4 Resignation of Officers. Any Officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Corporation. Any resignation shall take effect at the date of the receipt of that notice or at any later time specified in that notice; and, unless otherwise specified in that notice, the acceptance of the resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. Any resignation is without prejudice to the rights, if any of the Corporation under any contract to which the Officer is a party.

Section 7.5 Vacancies in Offices. A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or any other cause shall be filled in the manner prescribed in these Bylaws for regular appointments to that office, provided that such vacancies shall be filled as they occur and not on an annual basis.

Section 7.6 Compensation of Officers.

7.6.1 Salaries Fixed by Board. The salaries of Officers, if any, shall be fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board or by the person or Committee to whom the Board has delegated this function, and no Officer shall be prevented from receiving such salary by reason of the fact that he or she is also a Director, provided, however, that such compensation paid to a Director for serving as an Officer shall only be allowed if permitted under the provisions of Section 6.8. In all cases, any salaries received by Officers shall be reasonable and given in return for services actually rendered for the Corporation which relate to the performance of the public benefit purposes of the Corporation. No salaried Officer serving as a Director shall be permitted to vote on his or her own compensation as an Officer.

7.6.2 Fairness of Compensation. The Board shall periodically review the fairness of compensation, including benefits, paid to every person, regardless of title, with powers, duties, or responsibilities comparable to the president, chief executive officer, treasurer, or chief financial officer (i) once such person is hired, (ii) upon any extension or renewal of such person's term of employment, and (iii) when such person's compensation is modified (unless all employees are subject to the same general modification of compensation).

ARTICLE 8: INTERPRETATION

Section 8.1 Construction and Definitions. Unless the context requires otherwise, the general provisions, rules of construction, and definitions of California Nonprofit Corporation Law shall govern the construction of these Bylaws. Without limiting the generality of the above, the masculine gender includes the feminine and neuter, the singular number includes the plural, the plural number includes the singular, and the term "person" includes both the Corporation and a natural person. All references to statutes, regulations and laws shall include any future statutes, regulations and laws that replace those referenced.

ARTICLE 9: AMENDMENTS

Section 9.1 Amendment by Directors. The Board may adopt, amend, or repeal bylaws by unanimous vote.
